

Department of History
Presidency University, Kolkata

Notice

Every student, regular as well as backlog, of the UG-II, Semester IV GenEd course HIST0431: "South Asian Cultures in the Age of Nationalism" is hereby directed to submit in both hard and soft copy, a 2000-word-essay on either of the two topics mentioned below for end-semester evaluation, latest by 02:30 pm on Friday, 26 April, 2019. The soft copy may be emailed to the undersigned who is the course instructor at navras.his@presiuniv.ac.in. All students, including those from the departments of Bengali and Hindi, should submit the essays only in the English language.

The hard copy may be submitted to Ms. Tania Mitra, Secretary, Office of the Department of History. The office is located at the second floor of the main building, next to the office of the CoE. The students are advised to ensure that they sign the register that would be maintained for the purpose and also put the date when they submit their essays. They must not forget to mention their roll number/registration number and their department on their essay.

They are required to write on any one of the following two topics:

1. Nation as a problem in historical enquiry with particular reference to the Indianness of modern Indian philosophy as a historical problem and also to history writing in India.

Or

2. Emergence of dissent and response to it in religious communities, with particular reference to the case of Pandita Ramabai and the debate on Sati in colonial India.
