

NOTICE
Gen-Ed End-Semester Examination
Even Semester 2019

Regular & Backlog

Intellectual Property Right (Pols-432)

Dear Students,

For your 4th Semester Gen-Ed End-Semester Exam (Regular & Backlog) on Intellectual Property Right (Pols-432), please submit a write-up of 2500 words (each) on any of the two areas mentioned below.

Que 1: Geographical Indication (GI) promotes and supports community rights and traditional craftsmanship- Elucidate with proper example and case study.

Que 2: The Patenting Laws in India was framed keeping in mind the dilemma of a newly independent nation and an aspiration global player- Illustrate with suitable examples.

Que 3: In the present interconnected world IPR is losing its relevance- Give proper justification

Please note that you are directed to

- Submit a soft and hard copy of your assignment on or before 25/04/2019 (Thursday) for the Regular Candidates and 02/05/2019 for the Back-Log Candidates (Thursday).
- Mail the soft copy of the assignment to the undersigned at tanwir.polsc@presiuniv.ac.in. Assignments in personal email-id will strictly not be entertained.
- Also, submit the hard copy of your assignment in the office of the Department of Political Science mentioning clearly your name, semester and registration number and the candidature status (Regular or Backlog) properly and on the top sheet. (Incomplete assignments in any form will not be entertained.)
- Your assignment will be evaluated out of 35 marks.

Dr. Tanwir Arshed
Course Instructor
Assistant Professor
Department of Political Science
Presidency University, Kolkata